

CONSTITUTION

CLEVELAND HEIGHTS TEACHERS UNION

PREAMBLE

We, the Cleveland Heights Teachers Union, here set forth our constitution and state as our mission the establishment of the representative governance of our Union, the creation of an Executive Board that is resolute and expeditious in making decisions affecting the welfare of our members, and the enhancement of our professional dignity through organizational strength and collective bargaining.

ARTICLE I NAME

This organization shall be known as The Cleveland Heights Teachers Union.

ARTICLE II OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this organization shall be:

Section 1. To promote the welfare of children.

Section 2. To bring the educators and security monitors of the Cleveland Heights-University Heights City School District into relations of mutual assistance and cooperation.

Section 3. To obtain for our members the rights to which we are entitled.

Section 4. To raise the standards of our professions by securing the conditions essential to the best professional service.

Section 5. To promote such democratization of schools as will enable us to better equip our pupils to take their places in the industrial, social, and political life of our communities.

Section 6. To promote the welfare of the Cleveland Heights-University Heights School District by providing progressively better educational opportunity for all.

Section 7. To eliminate racism, sexism, discrimination based on race, ethnicity, religion, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, national origin, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, citizenship status, military or veteran status or in all forms including, but not limited to, exploitation of workers.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Certified employees and retirees of the public school districts including, but not limited to teachers, media specialists, guidance counselors, school psychologists, school social workers, substitute teachers, speech language pathologists, occupational and physical therapists, and school nurses, are eligible for membership. All Security Monitors, ancillaries, and certain categories of non-certificated employees are also eligible for membership.

Section 2. Other educational employees, including school clerks, secretaries, substitute teachers, teacher aides, custodians, bus drivers, groundskeepers, cleaners, and other para-professionals, shall become eligible for membership upon their acceptance by the President, with approval from the Executive Board.

Section 3. Supervisory personnel with the rank of principal or above shall not be eligible to obtain membership.

Section 4. No discrimination shall ever be shown toward individual members or applicants for membership based on race, ethnicity, religion, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, national origin, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, citizenship status, military or veteran status or political beliefs.

Section 5. A member may be expelled for acts detrimental to the Union upon presentation of written charges signed by at least $\frac{1}{4}$ of the total membership and approval by at least $\frac{1}{4}$ of the Executive Board. The member shall have the right to appeal the decision to the membership at the following membership meeting and shall be reinstated with full rights if a majority of the members present vote to reinstate. No member may be expelled without due legal process.

Section 6. Any member who fails to pay dues shall upon the expiration of the dues payments (plus 60 days grace) be dropped from the rolls and their names removed from the records, except at the discretion of the President. The member may be reinstated upon the payment of all back dues, or if recommended for reinstatement acceptance by the President and approved by the Executive Board by a majority vote.

Section 7. If a member wishes to withdraw his or her membership, he or she must complete and submit a Union Withdrawal Card which must be delivered to the CHTU office by US Mail or delivered in person during the 10 (ten) business days from the first reporting date of the ensuing school year for 192 day contract members.

Section 8. Upon completion and signing of a Union membership statement and a dues authorization, an employee new to the bargaining unit shall have full immediate rights as a Union member except as referenced in Article IV Section 2.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS

Section 1. The following officers shall be selected biennially by this union:

1. President, who is also Chief Delegate to the local labor body
2. First Vice President

Section 9. The President cannot incur non-budgeted expenses in excess of $1,000 without the approval of Executive Board.

Section 10. The Executive Board of the Union shall have the power to instruct the President and/or ranking delegate prior to conventions.

ARTICLE VII AFFILIATIONS AND RETIREES

Section 1.

This Union shall maintain such affiliations as the officers, executive board and members approve. The Union shall maintain affiliation with organized labor, provided, however, the Union shall not be a part of nor affiliated with, any organization which by its laws, or otherwise, provides or claims control over the internal affairs of the Cleveland Heights Teachers Union. The Union is presently affiliated with the American Federation of Teachers, the Ohio Federation of Teachers, and the Ohio AFL-CIO. When recommended by the President and approved by the Executive Board, the Union will select and send delegates to conventions of organizations with which the Union is affiliated in the following manner.

a. Except for the President, who shall be ranking delegate and primary delegate, and the First Vice President, who shall be secondary delegate, all other delegates to the National Convention of any affiliate shall be elected by secret ballot; and all other delegates to the State Convention of the Ohio AFL-CIO, if affiliated shall be elected by majority vote at a regular membership meeting, provided that notice of the election and nominees shall have been mailed or sent electronically to the membership at least thirty (30) days prior to the election. Nominations shall be made by the President, with preference given to members of the Executive Board. Nominations other than those made by the President, are to be accompanied by petitions containing at least thirty (30) signatures of members and are to be submitted to the Nominations Chair at least twenty (20) days before election, and a final list of nominees shall be promulgated at least ten (10) days before election.

b. Except for the President, who shall be ranking delegate and delegates, and the First Vice President who shall be secondary delegate, all other delegates to the State Convention of any other affiliate shall be selected in the following manner.

(1) The President shall recommend and the Executive Board shall approve an even number of delegates. Should the Executive Board approve the number of delegates to be ten or less, the President shall appoint the delegates giving right of first refusal to generally elected officers.

(2) Delegates and alternates in excess of ten shall be appointed one-half by the President and one-half by the other nine elected officers via an elimination meeting which shall be chaired by the President which shall occur no less than thirty days prior to the convention. Members of the Executive Board shall be given the right of first refusal.

(3) The President shall have the right to send any additional alternates at, except for the substitute cost, no expense to the local.

c. The President and Secretary shall certify the election and forward the credentials of all elected delegates and alternates to the National office as soon as possible but not later than ten days before the convening of the National Convention.

d. Except for the President, who shall be ranking delegate, all other delegates and alternates to the Cleveland AFL-CIO Federation of Labor shall be appointed by the President with preference given to members of the Executive Board.

e. Delegates of this local shall, at conventions, be bound to the ranking delegate by unit rule.

Section 3. This local shall pay all legitimate expenses of delegates to meetings and conventions.

Section 4. Delegates to affiliated organizations shall meet the same requirements for office as officers of this local.

Section 5. Should the President recommend changes in any of the Local union's affiliations with any other organization, such recommendations must be approved by the Executive Board by a two-thirds vote of that body in order to take effect.

ARTICLE VIII DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Union and of Executive Board, and shall be ex-officio member of all committees, except the Audit Committee shall sign all necessary papers and documents, and shall represent the local when and where necessary.
